

Hello In There-Kristofferson and Joan Baez
 Author:John Prine

G C D7
 We had an apartment in the city
 G C D7
 Me and Loretta liked living there
 Bm C
 It's been years since the kids have grown
 G D7
 A life of their own left us alone

G C D7
 John and Linda live in Omaha
 G C D7
 Joe is somewhere on the road
 Bm C
 We lost Davy in the Korean war
 G D7
 I still don't know what for it don't matter anymore

F G
 You know old trees just grow stronger
 F G
 Old rivers grow wilder every day
 Bm C
 Old people just grow lonesome
 G D7 G
 Waiting for someone to say hello in there hello

C D7
 Me and Loretta we don't talk much now
 G C D7
 She sits and stares through the backdoor screen
 Bm C
 And all the news just repeats itself
 G D7
 Like some forgotten dream that we've both seen

G C D7
 Someday I'll go and call up Rudy
 G C D7
 We worked together at the factory
 Bm C
 What'll I tell him if he asks what's new
 G D7
 Nothing what's with you nothing much to do

Repeat#3

C D7
 So if you're walking down the street sometime
 G C D7
 Spot some hollow vacant eyes
 Bm C
 Please don't just pass them by and stare
 G D7 G
 As if you didn't care say hello in there hello
